ZZ TOP ON THE ROAD AGAIN IN JANUARY WITH REMAKE DATES

SHOW AT BIG SANDY SUPERSTORE ARENA IN HUNTINGTON RESCHEDULED TO MARCH 26

“That Little Ol’ Band from Texas” has unveiled an extensive run of tour dates starting in January - 2015. Their romp through North America will include their longtime pal and guitar virtuoso, Jeff Beck.

The upcoming itinerary includes new shows and remake dates with more to be announced, proving that nothing can derail the ZZ Top for long. The trio of Billy F Gibbons, Dusty Hill and drummer Frank Beard will be celebrating one of the most consistent and stable lineups in rock.

ZZ Top announced: “We’d like to thank our friends, fans and followers for all the support through the recent interruption. We’re happy to say the engine is firing on all cylinders and we’re ready to doubleback again . . . and then some.”

The show originally scheduled for October 14th at Big Sandy Superstore Arena will now be Thursday, March 26th. All tickets purchased for the original date will be honored on the new date.
